WE'RE STIRRING UP SOME MEMORIES — Since this is the 30th annual edition of the Golf Manitoba Journal, we're marking the occasion by taking the opportunity to stir up some memories with A Peek Into History section (starting on page 57). We expect seeing the 30 covers of all the editions of this publication since its inception as the Manitoba Golf Annual in 1980 will raise some memories for many of you. The decision was also made to list all the presidents of the various provincial golf associations and round up data on the golfers who played on Manitoba teams in national competitions over the years. We have provided this information as it was available and, if there are any errors or omissions, we would certainly like to hear from you. Contact the Golf Manitoba office if you know of any wrong information or if you can fill in any of the unknowns.

THIS ISSUE IS A LITTLE LARGER than we have presented in recent years with a total of 76 pages, a little more than the 68 pages in the 2008 edition, but still a little shy of the 80 pages offered in that first edition of the Golf Manitoba Annual in 1980. We're thankful for the advertising support for this publication and ask our readers to express appreciation to those who have placed advertisements. You might mention you saw their ad in the Journal.

WE HAVE RETAINED MOST OF THE FEATURES of our previous productions, such as the salute to the champions of the past year and to the Golfer of the Year and Distinguished Volunteer, as well as the Hall of Fame inductees. The What's New feature is an attempt to keep the golf crowd as up to date as possible with the changes on the golf scene and there are also sections devoted to the course superintendents and golf pros. We also include the results of the past year's competitions, a listing of former champions and, of course, the directory of clubs which belong to Golf Manitoba.

ON A PERSONAL NOTE — Because this is an annual publication and there are many deaths during the course of a year, we have refrained from trying to carry obituaries, but there were three deaths that had a great impact on the Manitoba golf scene this past winter and we just want to recognize these individuals. Dale Esopenko, the golf pro at Assiniboine Golf Club for some 30 years, and Alan Hackett, who published Manitoba Links – A Kaleidoscopic History of Golf, both left us in January and Ahlin Walker, a past president of both the Manitoba and Canadian Ladies Golf Associations, passed away in February. They were great promoters on the game of golf in this area and also close personal friends. They will be missed.

WE HOPE YOU ENJOY the articles which have been assembled for this edition and that you might gain some information that will be of use. And, here's wishing you all the best for the 2009 seasons and remember, as always:
"Keep 'em in the fairways!"

Executive Director's Report

Dave Comaskey

Welcome to the 2009 golf season! Whether you were fortunate to escape the long, cold winter or you remained here to face the elements, I'm sure it is safe to say that we all are looking forward to a wonderful summer.

For the first time in almost 10 years, Golf Manitoba and the Royal Canadian Golf Association will request a dues increase from our members and member clubs. Both associations have absorbed inflationary costs and reduced administrative costs while continuing to offer quality programming. The decision to increase our dues was not easy and we are very aware of the impact it could have. Membership dollars are spent in some of the following ways which help to grow and develop the game of golf, such as:

- the Canada Games Training Squad which is focusing on developing our young athletes in preparation for an experience of a lifetime at the 2009 Canada Games in Prince Edward Island;
- the CN Future Links program which introduces the game of golf to young people;
- the Taking Flight program which offers golf instruction to young people who normally would not have had the opportunity to play the game;
- offering world class sport science opportunities to our competitive golfers and assisting with the University of Manitoba Bison Golf Team;
- Handicap and Course Rating services that enable golfers of all abilities to compete on an equitable level which includes the RCGA Network. The Network, which is included in membership, is Canada's national, centralized web-enabled handicap and communication network service for Golf Manitoba/RCGA members and member clubs;
- Preserving the integrity of the game through rules of golf education. Services are provided to both the golfer who would simply like to abide by the rules as well as the volunteer rules official who would one day like to officiate at the RBC Canadian Open;
- Promotion of the game and our member clubs through communication initiatives such as the annual Golf Manitoba Journal, the Golf Manitoba website (www.golfmanitoba.mb.ca), newsletters and media releases;
- Providing administrative assistance to the Manitoba

Golf Scholarship Fund which assists young Manitoba and Northwest Ontario golfers with pursuing post-secondary education and to the Manitoba Golf Hall of Fame & Museum which honors our athletes and builders for their accomplishments.

In an ever-changing economy, Golf Manitoba has also pursued additional sources of revenue through partnerships with the corporate community. In 2007, our Marketing Committee and Board of Directors restructured our available sponsorship properties and we've had some success with acquiring corporate partners to assist with the delivery of our programs. In that same year, Manitoba Blue Cross agreed to a one-year contract to be the title sponsor of our rural championships as well as contributing to the Manitoba Golf Scholarship Fund. Based on the success of that partnership, we've signed a three-year agreement for 2008 to 2010, which will continue to see them as the title sponsor of these events and contributor to the Scholarship Fund.

In the fall of 2008, Curtis Gray and The Golf Dome provided support to our Canada Games Training Squad as the official training centre for young athletes preparing for the 2009 Canada Games in Prince Edward Island. In the spring of this year, Golf Manitoba was very pleased to welcome Nott Autocorp as our latest corporate partner. They have provided Golf Manitoba with a vehicle which will help deliver our services and in turn become the presenting sponsor of the Men's Amateur Championship.

I would like to thank these organizations for their commitment to Golf Manitoba. If anyone would like more information about further sponsorship opportunities, please contact me at any time.

The annual Golf Manitoba Journal is being distributed for the thirtieth year in Manitoba and Northwest Ontario. Originally developed by the Manitoba Golf Association in 1980, the magazine has seen a few different publishers and editors but Ralph Bagley has had the biggest individual involvement. Ralph has poured his heart and soul into the magazine and he should be congratulated for his efforts. Thank you, Ralph, for your hard work!

The role of volunteers with Golf Manitoba continues to be a critical requirement for our operations. We currently have around 85 dedicated individuals who provide their valuable time to assist with the delivery of Golf Manitoba programs and services. These include course rating, bingo volunteers, starters, scorers, pace of play officials and rules officials at our championships, committee and board members, club representatives and those that accompany many of our teams. As a staff member, it is certainly one of the highlights of my job to work with these people. If you see a Golf Manitoba official at your club or at an event, please take the time to thank them for assisting with the development of the game of golf.

Good golfing!

Sport Manitoba offices moving to Alexander Avenue

Sport Manitoba's vision for a Sport for Life Center is moving closer to reality.

Sport Manitoba has operated out of the 200 Main Street building since its inception in 1996. With lease agreements at 200 Main ending in 2009, some staff and volunteers will be in transition until new administrative space at 146 Alexander Avenue is ready. Sport Manitoba and more than 65 partner organizations (including Golf Manitoba) currently lease four floors at 200 Main Street.

Although the majority of the provincial sport organizations will remain at 200 Main Street for the interim period, 200 Main Street owners required some of the space currently occupied by Sport Manitoba. Interim office space was secured at 238 Portage Avenue in March.

The Golf Manitoba offices remain at 200 Main Street for this season. The total move of all the sports offices is to be completed in December.

THE NEW HOME OF SPORT MANITOBA, 146 ALEXANDER AVENUE

"The sport community has been very patient and supportive. They recognize that a short-term interim move will lead to a new home which will have a tremendous impact on sport for generations to come", said Jeff Hnatiuk, president and CEO of Sport Manitoba. "We anticipate that our new facility at 146 Alexander Avenue will be ready for occupancy in December, 2009".

Paul Robson, chair of Sport Manitoba's Board of Directors, says: "We knew the move was coming and recognized the opportunity to develop something very unique to sport in Canada. For almost three years we have been planning a new home that will be more than just administration. Accessible to all, a Sport for Life Center presents an opportunity to incorporate a mix of sport heritage, high performance and community sport."

Cindy Tugwell, executive director for Heritage Winnipeg, says they are supportive of the project. "The project is going forward in a way that is respectful of the historic streetscape and will contribute to the revitalization of the area."

Ross McGowan, president and CEO of CentreVenture, is ecstatic that a downtown property has been identified that meets Sport Manitoba's current and future needs. "A significant heritage building will, once again become fully utilized and we welcome this major resource centre to the ever-evolving north Main Street and Waterfront Drive neighborhoods."

Sport Manitoba is a not-for-profit organization and the lead planning, programming and funding agency for the development of amateur sport in Manitoba. Sport Manitoba partners with over 100 organizations to deliver sport in our province and is responsible for programs including the Power Smart Manitoba Games, Coaching Manitoba, Team Manitoba and KidSport.

PLAYER DEVELOPMENT REPORT

Canada Games Training Squad

For the first time in Canada Games history, golf has been selected to become one of 10 participating sports in the 2009 Canada Summer Games. Golf's inclusion in the Games has resulted in some very exciting program opportunities for Golf Manitoba.

In order to try and prepare our top young athletes, Golf Manitoba created a three-phase program for the "Canada Games Training Squad". Phase One began in March, 2008, and was completed in August of that same year. Based on the 2007 accomplishments, eight young men and eight young women were chosen to partake in various programs provided by Golf Manitoba. Those programs included:

- A seminar with RCGA sport psychologist Dr. Dana Sinclair and registered dietician and competitive amateur golfer Angela Martens.
- A fitness assessment and personalized training program through the Titleist Performance Institute overseen by TPI golf fitness instructor and physiotherapist Barry Mitchell.
- A rules education seminar.
- Weekly team practices conducted by CPGA Professionals and team coaches Garth Goodbrandson and Derek Ingram.
- Golf day in preparation for provincial junior championship with top professional and amateur players.
- Flightscope analysis (utilized by many touring professionals) during weekly practices.
- Seminar on preparation with former Tour Professional Todd Fanning.
- Participation on Golf Manitoba's Mundie Putter Team
- Ryder Cup style competition against the University of Manitoba Golf Team

In order to maintain the momentum built by the program over the summer of 2008, Phase Two continued over the winter months with 11 boys and nine girls. The change in size of the Training Squad was based on performance and players being able to commit to the program. Some of the highlights offered in Phase Two were:

- A seminar outlining the RCGA/CPGA's Long Term Player Development (LTPD) Guide for players and parents.
- Goodbrandson and Ingram discussed the different stages of the LTPD, the expectations of team members and the work ethic required to compete nationally.

- Fitness assessment and a personalized program through the Titleist Performance Institute overseen by TPI golf fitness instructor and physiotherapist Barry Mitchell.
- As a result of a partnership with Curtis Gray and The Golf Dome, a winter membership was provided to each player at the Golf Dome.
- Weekly Fitness sessions (Xcel Fitness for the boys team and the Yoga Center for the girls team).
- Derek Ingram conducted individualized Flightscope sessions to monitor club speed, distance and club fitting recommendations.
- Three sport science seminars including guest speakers Phil Towle (Personal Enhancement Coach), Dr. Adrienne Leslie Toogood (Director of Sports Psychology at the Canadian Sports Center Manitoba), Jason Brooks (Sports Psychologist) and 2008 Olympian and Manitoba "Male Athlete of the Year" Jay Lyon.
- Dr. Toogood also conducted a bio feedback session which gave each participant feedback on their personal physiology. A personalized plan was then created for each team member to assist them with relaxation, calming and refocusing.

GARTH GOODBRANDSON
Director of Player Development

The participants of the Canada Games Training Squad have worked very hard and should be congratulated for their commitment and willingness to improve.

Phase Two Team male members were: Burke Wiebe and Bryce Barr of Southwood, Ryan Dirr of the Players Club, Steve Minion and Alex Crawford of Breezy Bend, Ryan Pitzel of Rossmere, Aaron Cockerill of Teulon, Taylor Reilly of Niakwa, Myles Sullivan of Portage, Josh Wytinck of Glenboro and Scott Mazur of Transcona. The female members were: Bri-Ann Tokariwski of Elmhurst, Lindsay Stewart of Selkirk, Jenna Roadley of Glendale, Breanne Fredette and Ashley Fredette of Niakwa, Nicole McGlenen and Dana Todd of St. Charles, Alyssa Moon of Portage and Kayla Ketcheson of Larters at St. Andrews.

Phase Three of the program will be an exciting time leading up to the Games in Prince Edward Island. Based on a number of qualifying events which will take place over the summer, three males and three females will be selected to represent Manitoba at the Games in August. In addition to the qualifying events for the team, other programs that will be offered are:

- Golf Manitoba's Canada Games Training Squad vs. the University of Manitoba Golf Team Ryder Cup style matches.
- The boys team will participate in the Mundie Putter "A" Division.
- For the first time a junior girls team will participate in the Women's Nassau League.
- Regular weekly practices and coaching.
- Opportunities to golf with top CPGA professionals and top local amateurs.

CN Future Links Program

While the Canada Games Training Squad provides for a very active schedule, Golf Manitoba has not lost site of the importance of exposing new young players to the game and we are actively involved with many grassroots programs. Two key programs that have seen steady growth are the City of Winnipeg/Golf Manitoba Children's camps and the University of Manitoba's Mini U camps. CPGA Class A Professional Glen Sirkis is the lead instructor for Golf Manitoba. The week-long camps feature instruction in the morning with golf in the afternoon. The programs are an excellent way to get young golfers exposed to the game and get them on the course in a fun environment.

Golf Manitoba also has plans to expand the Future Links Girls Club program this year. In 2008 Golf Manitoba assisted St. Charles Head Professional Cory Kartusch in conducting three clinics aimed at introducing young girls to the game at the St. Charles Country Club. Over 90 girls participated in these clinics with Cory and his staff doing a great job organizing.

Golf Manitoba will continue to offer the school clinics program throughout Manitoba in 2009. This grassroots program has proved to be very popular. In the last twelve seasons, over 9000 children have participated in these clinics.

Golf Manitoba will also continue to offer junior and adult clinics to member clubs who don't employ a CPGA Professional.

University of Manitoba Golf Team

The University of Manitoba held their inaugural fund-raising tournament in May at the Elmhurst Golf and Country Club. The tournament was a huge success and could not have been possible without the title sponsorship of the Manitoba Lotteries Corporation. Elmhurst was also very instrumental in the success of this event by donating the golf course for the day. One hundred and twenty supporters participated and enjoyed meeting the University players who were stationed throughout the golf course and were available to hit mulligans for the participants. All in all it was a great day.

The Bison Teams fall schedule include six tournaments for the Men's team and four tournaments for the Women's team. The Men's best finishes were third at the St. John's Invitational in Sauk Center, MN, and second at North Dakota State's Erv Kaiser Classic. The Women's team top finish was third at the Cobber Classic in Detroit Lakes. Team captains Faye Zachedniak and Eric Johnson were named team MVP's. Some top individual performance were by: Eric Johnson, second at the St Johns Invite (71) and tied sixth at the Concordia St. Paul's Fall Classic (78-71); Ryan Cook, tied fourth at the Erv Kaiser Classic (76-70-75); Shayne Fredborg, tied fourth at the Erv Kaiser Classic (73-72-76); Nathan Wazney, tied fourth at the Erv Kaiser Classic (68-74-79); Morgan Campbell, tied seventh at the Erv Kaiser Classic (77-72-75); Bobby Wiebe, seventh at the BSU Invitational (71-75); Jesse Skelton, tied ninth at the Cobber Invite (74); Sarah Stebeleski, seventh at the Cobber Invite (82); and Faye Zachedniak, placed in the top 15 in all four events.

Over the years, Golf Manitoba has continued to expand and modify programs to accommodate golfers throughout Manitoba and Northwest Ontario. Golf Manitoba offers grassroots programs for both youth and adults with hopes of growing the game. High performance programs are designed to include the latest sports science opportunities to give the competitive players the necessary information to achieve their golfing goals. For any questions, comments or suggestions please contact Director of Player Development Garth Goodbrandson at 925-5629.

Brad Kirton repeats as Golfer of the Year

For the second straight year, Brad Kirton of Pine Ridge has been awarded the Labatt Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year honours.

The trophy was awarded Oct. 20 at the Golf Manitoba annual awards dinner at St. Charles Country Club.

THE FINALISTS

After winning the award in 2007 by winning two provincial championships, Kirton went one better in 2008 as he claimed three Manitoba championships in his final season of amateur play before turning to professional ranks.

In 2008, Kirton won the Manitoba Men's Match Play championship to get started on the right foot, then followed that up successfully defending the Manitoba Amateur and Manitoba Mid-Amateur titles which led to his selection in 2007.

The other finalists for the 2008 Labatt award were Garth Collings of Breezy Bend, Jill Hardy of Elmhurst and Peter More, also of Elmhurst. All three of the finalists were former winners of the award.

Garth Collings

Jill Hardy

Peter More

Golfer of the Year

Kirton, Collings and More all earned berths together on the provincial Willingdon Cup team and the provincial Mid-Amateur teams to represent Manitoba in the national championships. Collings was runner-up in the Amateur after a five-hole playoff with Kirton. More finished second at the Mid-Amateur, one stroke behind Kirton.

Hardy was a double winner in women's competition last season, winning the City & District championship and the Manitoba Women's Amateur title, which included a berth on the provincial Women's Amateur team

Four other golfers received honourable mention from the selection panel – juniors Aaron Cockerill of Teulon, Kevin Giesbrecht of Carman and Ryan Pitzel of Rossmere – along with provincial Senior Women's champion Noreen Stewart of Southwood.

It marked the 34th time the Labatt Golfer of the Year was presented, dating back to 1975.

Distinguished Service Award goes to Don Forsyth

Trish Jordan, Golf Manitoba president presents painting to Don Forsyth, this year's winner of the association's Distinguished Service Award.

Don Forsyth of Bel Acres Golf and Country Club has been named the second recipient of the Golf Manitoba Distinguished Service Award. The presentation was announced at the association's annual awards dinner in October at St. Charles Country Club.

The award, to recognize service to the association, was inaugurated in 2007 and the first winner was Jerry Budyk of Elmhurst Golf and Country Club.

Forsyth was honoured for his dedication to amateur golf since 1982, when he was part of the first four-person team to introduce course and slope rating in Manitoba and Northwest Ontario. In 1993, he had his first experience as a rules official in the men's match play championship at the Wildewood Club and he has continued to serve as an active rules official for Golf Manitoba.

He served on the board of the Manitoba Golf Association and Golf Manitoba from 1998 to 2004 and held the position of officials chairman.

Forsyth was also an accomplished player, having won club championships at the Polo Park Golf Club, Assiniboine Golf Club and Breezy Bend Country Club over the years. He also won the provincial Senior Men's championship in 1988 and was on the Manitoba Senior Men's team that season along with Gord Lenton, Jimmy Doyle and Marty Malcovish.

"Through golf, I've met and enjoyed friendships of many fine people both administratively and competitively," Forsyth said as he accepted his award. "I would do it all over again if I had the chance. It has been my way of putting something back into golf."

"Everyone who knows Don knows what a personable and dedicated individual he is," said Golf Manitoba president Trish Jordan as she made the presentation. "He has made a significant contribution to our association over many years of service as both a board member and active volunteer. Don is a well-respected and knowledgeable rules official and is a very deserving recipient of this prestigious award."

Along with the Distinguished Service Award, Golf Manitoba also recognized all volunteers within the association for their years of service, recognizing those individuals reaching the five, 10, 15, 20 and 25-plus years of service benchmarks.

Recognized for 20 years of service were Syd Cohan, Gerry McKay and George McLeod.

Serving for 15 years were Ron Genyk, Harvey Goehring, Dennis Langrell, Don MacDonald and Mary Pryma.

Golf Hall of Fame welcomes four new members

The list of members in the Manitoba Golf Hall of Fame and Museum grew to 32 last September when three golfers and one builder were added during the sixth annual induction ceremonies. The Hall membership now includes 21 athletes, 10 builders and one athlete/builder.

The sixth induction event was staged Sept. 22 at the McPhillips Street Station Casino and was presented by the Casinos of Winnipeg division of the Manitoba Lotteries Corporation.

Athletes Garth Collings, Ken Fulton and Gail Graham were in attendance to accept their awards while builder Manny Bricker was honoured posthumously, with his award accepted by his widow, Sylvia Bricker.

Bricker was saluted for many years of service to the golf community before his death in 1994. He capped his service to the Manitoba Golf Association with a term as president in 1972-73, then had a distinguished career with the Royal Canadian Golf Association, including a term as president of the national body in 1983.

Collings has been among the leading amateur golfers in Manitoba for several years and his resume includes appearances on 14 provincial Willingdon Cup teams and 10 provincial Mid-Amateur teams. He won the Manitoba Amateur championship twice and the Manitoba Mid-Amateur title five times. He was named Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year four times and was also a finalist for that honour nine times. Nationally, he won the Canadian Club Champions championship and the Canadian Mid-Amateur championship, both in 2003, and was also a member of one winning Willingdon Cup team and one winning Mid-Amateur team.

Fulton grew up and got his golfing start in Manitoba, but has been a resident of Ontario in the development of a noteworthy golf career. He played for four years on the PGA Tour and two years on the European Senior PGA Tour, he won the Canadian Club

Pro championship twice and was also a winner of the Canadian Senior PGA title. He has been named a Master Professional for the Canadian Professional Golf Association and is the owner of the successful Ken Fulton Golf Centre at Ajax, ON.

Graham started her winning ways in Manitoba and went on to achieve fame on the LPGA Tour, on and off the course. As Gail Anderson, she won the Manitoba Women's Junior title in 1982 and the Manitoba Women's Amateur crown twice in 1983 and 1985. She was chosen as Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year in 1983 and was also a finalist for that honour twice. She was a member of three Manitoba Women's Junior teams and two Manitoba Women's Amateur teams.

Graham turned professional in 1988 and played on the LPGA Tour until she retired from competitive golf in 2003. She won two LPGA tournaments during her 14 years and also served as the LPGA president and is currently the president of the LPGA Tournament Owners Association.

Manitoba Golf Hall of Fame President Don MacDonald and past president Joyce Collier were in charge of the presentations, with Clayton Dreger of Radio Southern Manitoba as master of ceremonies.

The seventh annual Manitoba Golf Hall of Fame induction is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 5, at the McPhillips Street Station Casino. Nominations for inductees close at the end of April each year and forms are available on the Golf Manitoba website or at the Golf Manitoba office.

Plaques honouring the 32 inductees are on display at the Golf Manitoba office until a permanent site is developed for the Golf Hall of Fame and Museum.

The Class of 2008

MANUEL (MANNY) BRICKER

Manuel (Manny) Bricker was a member of Glendale Golf and Country Club from 1947 until his death in 1994 and his many years of service to the sport of golf was highlighted by a term as president of the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

Born March 17, 1919, he started to play golf at public courses before joining Glendale, the only club to which he belonged, in 1947. He served in many capacities on the board at Glendale before he was elected president of the club in 1968. He became the first Glendale member to serve on the Manitoba Golf Association Council.

He served in many capacities before he became president of the MGA in 1972-73 and began a long association with the Royal Canadian Golf Association.

Manny was RCGA finance chairman in 1977, had a term as greens chairman, became first vice-president in 1982 and was elected president of the national organization in 1983. He served as chairman for RCGA's Canadian Men's Amateur championship at Niakwa in 1974, the Canadian Senior Men's championship at Glendale in 1978 and the Peter Jackson senior pro tournament at St. Charles in 1982.

He was captain of Canada's International Team in Venezuela in 1983 and also represented the RCGA at the Masters championship and all of the Canadian championships in that year.

He was instrumental in revitalizing the financial stability of the RCGA during his years of service, just as he was instrumental in many aspects of the operations at the Glendale club and in the Manitoba Golf Association. His achievements at Glendale were recognized with an honorary life membership in the club.

His education was started at Weyburn, SK., followed by St. John's College and the University of Manitoba, interrupted by the war. In business, he was the president of Inland Trust. He died September 17, 1994.

GARTH COLLINGS

Garth Collings was born in Winnipeg April 15, 1958, and began his golfing career as a junior player at Assiniboine Golf Club, where he won the club's junior championship three times and the men's championship twice. He also won the Bel Acres Golf and Country Club men's championship once before moving to Breezy Bend Country Club in 1970, where he has claimed the men's championship 15 times.

On the provincial scene, his record includes 14 appearances on Manitoba Willingdon Cup teams and 10 appearances on the Manitoba Mid-Amateur teams.

He was a Manitoba Willingdon Cup team member in 1987, 1988, 1994, 1995, 1997, 1998, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007 and 2008. He was on the Manitoba Mid-Amateur team in 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007 and 2008.

He was winner of the Manitoba Men's Amateur championship twice (1987 and 1994) and was runner-up four times. He won the Manitoba Mid-Amateur championship five times (2000, 2002, 2003, 2005 and 2006) and was runner-up twice. He won the Manitoba Match Play championship in 1996 and was runner-up the following year. He also won the Grey Owl golf title at Clear Lake seven times between 1997 and 2007 and travelled to Saskatchewan to win that province's Mid-Amateur championship four times in succession from 2003 to 2006.

Collings was nominated as a finalist for the Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year honours 13 times and was the winner of that award four times (1999, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

On the national scene, he was a member of Manitoba's winning Willingdon Cup team in 1995 and Manitoba's winning Mid-Amateur team in 2005. He won the Canadian Club Champions Championship in 2003 and was runner-up in 1994. He won the Canadian Mid-Amateur Championship in 2003.

On the international scene, Collings played twice for Team Canada – in 1997 in Costa Rica and 2003 in Argentina.

KENNETH (KEN) W. FULTON

Kenneth (Ken) W. Fulton began his life in British Columbia (Dec. 8, 1943), learned to golf in Manitoba and made his mark on the Canadian golf scene in Ontario.

The golf began at Elmhurst Golf and Country Club where his parents were the club managers and Wilf Homenuik got him involved with the sport. He was a runner-up in the Manitoba Junior championship twice and was a member of the Manitoba Junior team, winning co-medalist honours at the Canadian Junior championship in 1962. He attended university in Arizona on a golf scholarship and won the Arizona State amateur championship in 1965.

As a professional, Fulton played on the PGA Tour in the United States for four years (1969 to 1972) and also played two years on the European Senior PGA Tour (1995-96). He won the Canadian Club Pro championship twice and was winner of the Canadian Senior PGA championship once. He once placed 12th in the Canadian Open and was second low Canadian behind Al Balding. He was a four-time winner of the Ontario PGA Player of the Year award and was also winner of the Ontario PGA Professional of the Year honours.

He attained status as Master Professional in the CPGA in 2003, one of only 15 to be so recognized. He is the owner of the Ken Fulton Golf Centre at Ajax, ON, which has become a staple for golfers in the surrounding area. The location includes an executive golf course, complete practice facilities and a full repair shop. He also served in the 1990s as general manager and part owner of the Glen Eagles Golf Club at Bolton, ON.

Fulton was on the Board of Directors for the Ontario PGA for four years in the 1980s. He assisted and taught Canadian National Institute for the Blind golfers for several years in the 1980s and 1990s and participated in many charity golf events over the years.

GAIL GRAHAM

Gail Graham was born as Gail Anderson Jan. 16, 1964 at Vanderhoof, BC, moved from British Columbia to Winnipeg with her parents and got her start on a golf career as a junior player at St. Charles Country Club.

She won the Manitoba Junior Women's championship in 1982 and claimed two Manitoba Amateur Women's titles in 1983 and 1985. Anderson was in a four-way tie for runner-up honours in the Canadian Junior Women's championship as the Manitoba team also finished second in 1982. That year, she was one of three named as first recipients of the Canadian Golf Foundation scholarships.

She earned berths on the Manitoba Junior Women's teams in 1980, 1981 and 1982, and on Manitoba Women's Amateur teams in 1983, 1984 and 1985. She was a finalist in voting for Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year honours in 1982 and 1985. She attended Lamar University in Beaumont, TX, and was an NCAA Academic All-American in 1986. She was a member of Canada's winning team in the Commonwealth Championship in 1987 and also was low amateur at the du Maurier Classic in the same season.

She became a professional in 1988 and won the Canadian Ladies PGA title that year. On the LPGA Tour, she won the Fieldcrest Cannon Classic in 1995 and the Alpine Australian Ladies Masters in 1997. She spent 14 seasons on the LPGA Tour, finishing inside the top 90 for 10 straight years. She posted top-10 finishes in three of the four major championships, included a tie for fourth in the 1988 du Maurier Classic. Her career earnings on the LPGA Tour totalled $1,285,769. She retired from competition in 2003.

In addition to her playing career, Graham served as president of the LPGA Tour, helping to guide the association through a re-branding exercise and to help hire a new commissioner. She is now serving as president of the LPGA Tournament Owners Association and also has performed as a regular on Canadian golf broadcasts as an analyst and on-course reporter for both men's and women's events.

Scholarships awarded to seven Manitoba golfers

The awarding of seven 2008 scholarships from the Manitoba Golf Scholarship Fund Inc. were announced in August. These outstanding individuals have participated in the Manitoba golf community, demonstrated academic excellence, and are pursuing their post-secondary studies at Canadian educational institutions.

Since its inception, 121 scholarships have awarded totaling $115,500.

Scott Markham is the winner of the $1,500 Dr. Daya Gupta Award for Outstanding Scholastic Achievement for the third year in a row for obtaining the highest academic standing of all of this year's applicants. Markham, from Niakwa Country Club, entered his first year of Law School at the University of Manitoba after completing a four-year degree at the Asper School of Business where he received the Gold Medal in his last year for achieving the highest academic standing among all graduating students. He plans on pursuing a career in commercial law.

The other six individuals received $1,000 scholarships which are supported in 2008 by the Manitoba Golf Scholarship Fund ($4,000), the Investors Group Home on the Range clinic for KidSport with Glen Hnatiuk ($1,000) and Manitoba Blue Cross ($1,000):

Bethany Goran from the Dauphin Lake Golf Club has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship to assist her with pursuing her Bachelor of Nursing degree at the University of Manitoba. She finished runner up at the 2007 Manitoba Junior Women's Championship and was a member of the Manitoba team competing at the national championship.

John Moon of the Meadows at East St. Paul Golf Course has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship to assist him with pursuing his Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy from the University of British Columbia. His golf accomplishments in 2007 included a third place finish at a Maple Leaf Junior Tour event as well as a fourth place finish at a Manitoba PGA Junior tournament.

Aynsley O'Donovan from the Breezy Bend Country Club has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship to assist with her first year of studies at the University of Calgary. Aynsley plans on pursuing a degree in communication and culture while playing golf as a member of the University of Calgary Lady Dinosaurs. She was the Breezy Bend Country Club Junior Girls champion in 2007 and finished in the top ten of the Manitoba Junior Women's championship.

Jesse Skelton from Breezy Bend Country Club has been awarded $1,000 to assist him in pursuing his degree in Actuarial Mathematics at the University of Manitoba. Some of the highlights of his 2007 competitive golf season included a fifth place finish at the 2007 Manitoba Men's Amateur championship as well as being a member of the University of Manitoba Men's Golf Team. Jesse is also an accomplished pianist.

Lucas Wazney from the Elmhurst Golf and Country Club was awarded $1,000 to assist him in pursuing his degree in Civil Engineering at the University of Manitoba. He was the Junior Club Match Play champion at Elmhurst in 2007 and also had a 14th place finish at the 2007 Manitoba Junior Men's championship.

Nathan Wazney from the Elmhurst Golf & Country Club was awarded $1,000 to assist him in pursuing his degree in Commerce at the University of Manitoba. He finished 10th in the 2007 Manitoba Junior Men's championship and 12th at the 2007 Manitoba Men's Amateur championship.

annual scholarships are granted based on the interest earned from the fund as well as contributions from partners such as the Investors Group Glen Hnatiuk Home on the Range clinic for KidSport and Manitoba Blue Cross. The capital fund grows annually from donations made by individuals, donations made in honor of someone and golf clubs within Manitoba and Northwest Ontario making contributions. Tax receipts are given for donations to the Fund.

Adam Speirs signs sponsorship deal with MTS Allstream

Pierre Blouin, chief executive officer of MTS Allstream Inc. has announced that MTS Allstream has signed a sponsorship deal with Adam Speirs, one of the country's top professional golfers.

Last year, Speirs ranked 13th overall on the Canadian Tour Order of Merit and won the Greater Vancouver Charity Classic. The two-time U.S. Open competitor also was a member of Team Canada, the team champions of the Canadian Tour's International Team Matches in 2007 and 2008.

"On behalf of our 6,000 employees across the country, I want to welcome Adam to the MTS Allstream family," said Blouin. "We are thrilled to offer our support to one of Canada's great golfers, and we look forward to cheering him on as he takes on new challenges in the year ahead."

As part of this sponsorship agreement, Speirs will represent MTS Allstream at various golf tournaments and other events across Canada. In addition to the financial support he will receive to help him continue training and attending golf competitions around the world, Speirs will also be outfitted with MTS Allstream equipment and services – including a BlackBerry™ World Edition – to help him stay connected while on the road.

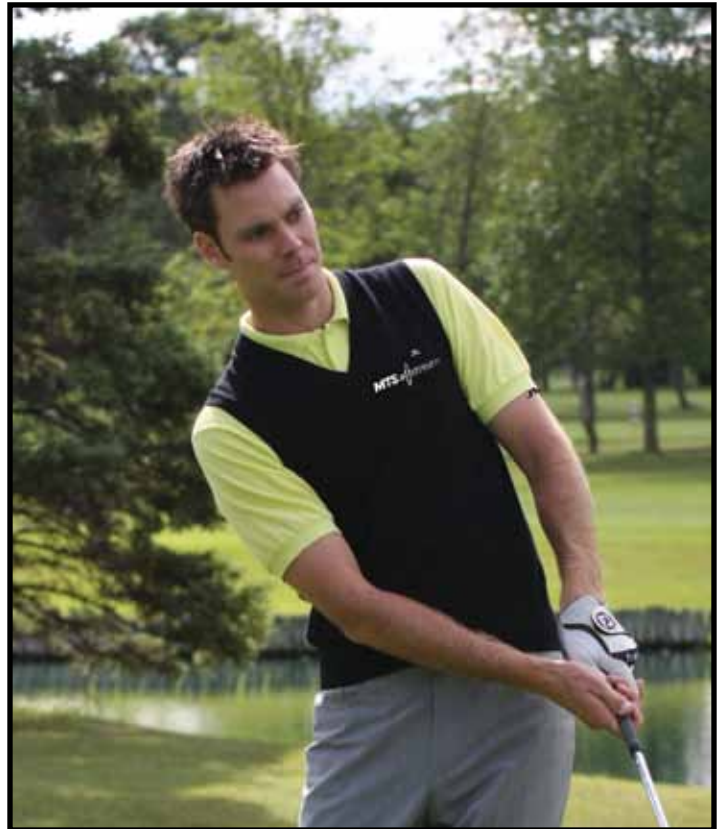

"I'm a proud Winnipegger, so teaming up with MTS Allstream is a natural fit. We share strong roots in Manitoba, yet we both compete on the national scene," said Speirs. "I look forward to being an ambassador for MTS Allstream and its employees."

This year, Speirs expects to participate in a number of competitions that will take him across the globe – from New York to Mexico, and from South Africa to Argentina and Chile. After the announcement in early April, his next major event was the Canadian Tour stop in Mazatlan, Mexico, April 23-26.

A member of St. Charles Country Club, Speirs was a top amateur player in Manitoba before turning professional. He won the provincial Junior Men's championship in 1997 and was the Manitoba Men's Amateur champ in 1999 and 2001. He was a finalist in voting for the Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year honours three times – in 1997, 1999 and 2001.

He represented Manitoba in national competition eight times as a member of the provincial junior team in 1994, 1996 and 1997 and as a member of the Manitoba Willingdon Cup teams in 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000 and 2001.

MTS Allstream is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Manitoba Telecom Services Inc. and is one of Canada's leading national communication solutions providers, delivering innovative products and services through the Enterprise Solutions and Consumer Markets divisions. The Enterprise Solutions division, which operates under the Allstream brand nationally and under the MTS Allstream brand in Manitoba, is a leading competitor in the national business and wholesale markets. This division offers customers a portfolio of solutions tailored to the needs of medium and large businesses looking for success in a world of rapidly evolving technology – Internet protocol connectivity, unified communications, IT consulting and security services.

The Consumer Markets division leads every telecommunications market segment in Manitoba, delivering a full suite of next generation wireless, high-speed Internet and data, digital television and wireline voice services under the MTS brand, as well as small business services in select markets across Canada under the Allstream brand, and security and alarm monitoring services through AAA Alarm Systems Ltd., an affiliate of MTS Allstream which also operates in other western provinces. MTS Allstream's extensive national broadband fibre optic network spans more than 27,900 kilometres, and provides international connections through strategic alliances and interconnection agreements with other international service providers. Manitoba Telecom Services Inc.'s common shares are listed on The Toronto Stock Exchange (trading symbol: MBT).

Nott Autocorp becomes title sponsor for Men's Amateur event

Golf Manitoba has announced this spring a new partnership with Nott Autocorp, which will see Manitoba's premier pre-owned luxury car dealership become the official vehicle provider of Golf Manitoba in exchange for naming rights to the premier men's amateur championship in Manitoba and Northwest Ontario.

The Manitoba Men's Amateur Championship presented by Nott Autocorp will be held July 20-23 at the Pinawa Golf Club and the Elmhurst Golf and Country Club. The elite field of 144 players will play the first two rounds at Pinawa, with the field cut to the low 60 competitors and ties for the final two rounds at Elmhurst.

"Golf Manitoba's promotion of amateur sport in Manitoba correlates directly with our community mission and values," said Trevor Nott, president of Nott Autocorp.

Dave Comaskey, executive director of Golf Manitoba said the organization is pleased to welcome Nott Autocorp as a new corporate partner. "We are proud to utilize one of Nott Autocorp's vehicles in our programming throughout the year. Nott Autocorp is committed to assisting with the development of golf in Manitoba and Northwest Ontario while making a strong business decision to target the golf community. We are appreciative of their efforts and their support."

Nott Autocorp remarkets and services vehicles (unique luxury for less). Their integrity based mission is to exceed clients and employees expectations. They are located one block inside the north Perimeter on Lagimodiere. Visit online at www.nottautocorp.com.

Blue Cross continues sponsorship of rural golf events

Manitoba Blue Cross and Golf Manitoba signed a three-year sponsorship agreement last summer that will see competitive events scheduled for rural Manitoba receive $5,000 annually in sponsorship money. In addition, Manitoba Blue Cross will make a $1,000 contribution to the Manitoba Golf Scholarship Fund.

Building on the success of a sponsorship agreement between Golf Manitoba and Manitoba Blue Cross that was launched in the previous year, Manitoba Blue Cross will continue as the presenting sponsor of both the Men's Junior Rural Championship scheduled for July 27-28 at the South Interlake Golf and Country Club and the Men's Rural Amateur/Senior Championship scheduled for August 16-17 at the Minnedosa Golf and Country Club.

The agreement also includes funding from Manitoba Blue Cross to support the future of golf in the province through the provision of a $1,000 contribution to the Manitoba Golf Scholarship Fund – a fund which provides monetary assistance to student golfers in the province pursuing post-secondary education within Canada.

"We are very pleased to be able to support the game of golf in rural Manitoba by continuing our relationship with Golf Manitoba," said Ken Hildahl, who was executive vice-president of sales and marketing with Manitoba Blue Cross at the time. "As a company with a strong presence in rural Manitoba, we feel this relationship is a great fit for Manitoba Blue Cross and allows us to support a sport we know rural Manitobans in communities across the province enthusiastically embrace."

Grey Owl 50th tourney a highlight for 2010

By BOB PICKEN

I'm a little biased in my opinion, so I'll throw the question out to all you golf aficionados in our readership, as follows:

Aside from provincial championships, what Manitoba golf tournament is renowned for its longevity and popularity?

If your answer is the Grey Owl tournament at Clear Lake, I think you've got it. Certainly the Grey Owl has to rank near the top of the list. This year's edition, June 12-14, is the 49th annual at the picturesque Riding Mountain course, and advance planning already is under way for number 50, to be played June 11-13, 2010.

The Grey Owl was launched in 1961, a creation of Laurie Artiss, then the sports editor of the Brandon Sun, and Bill Bell, the owner-operator of the Idylwyld Bungalows in Wasagaming. It had a first year field of 106 golfers, who paid $6 to enter and play 36 holes. Green fees were $4, which left $2 to go toward two prizes in each of six flights, plus cheese sandwiches at a very modest reception.

Very quickly the tournament ballooned to an entry total in excess of 300 golfers, requiring expansion to a three-day event. The maximum field of 320 now is divided into sections playing Friday-Saturday, Friday-Sunday or Saturday-Sunday.

No doubt two major boosters who were instrumental in the Grey Owl development were Howie Larke, the former provincial promotions manager for Labatt's Brewery, and media personality Cactus Jack Wells, both of whom played in the inaugural.

"Cactus fell in love with it right away, and I thought it would be a terrific promotional vehicle for us," said Larke, now living in retirement in Vancouver.

Wells, who did promotional assignments for Labatt, and Larke had no trouble convincing the brewery to assume the title sponsorship for the second year, but neither imagined they were forging one of Manitoba sport's longest-running sponsor link-ups. "It really has been an event that Labatt has been fortunate to be associated with all these years," said Larke.

Before he passed away in May, 1999, Wells and the Grey Owl were truly synonymous. He played in the tournament almost every year, he promoted it on his radio and television shows, and certainly by word of mouth. Many would suggest that the Wells presence gave the tournament a special style -- the fun and frivolity to go with the competition, and a large dose of prankish activity. His memory is perpetuated by the Cactus Jack Wells Memorial Trophy, presented to the Grey Owl champion.

Obviously, there had to be more than continuous sponsorship and the inclusion of key personalities to contribute to its success, and to keep golfers coming back year after year. I believe the structure of the event is significant. There are nine flights set up on handicaps, plus the Championship flight based on first-round scores, a media flight, and an age 60-plus Greyer Owl flight divided into four age categories. It's been said that the Grey Owl "attracts some of the best golfers in this region, and probably some of the worst."

Two of the best perennial contenders are Garth Collings of Breezy Bend and Jim Scissons of Saskatoon, who have represented their provinces in various golf categories at Canadian championships. Both are seven-time champions of the Grey Owl, and Collings set a tournament record in 2006 with rounds of 11-under-par 68-65-133.

Shilo's Grant Coulter set the Wasagaming course record in winning the 1990 Grey Owl, carding a nine-under-par 63 in his first round, and 18 years later he won the 2008 edition, shooting 68-70-138 to win by two strokes over Collings and Jared Crane of Brandon.

Conditions for the tournament have ranged from favourable to rather mediocre. The Grey Owl always starts on the second Friday in June, and the golfers have had to cope with rain, sleet, and even snow over the years. Green superintendents like Greg Holden usually are required to work diligently to combat the vagaries of spring weather at Clear Lake. Last year Holden was a winner -- he had the course in superb shape for the Grey Owl weekend.

When the Riding Mountain layout is at its best, it really adds to the Grey Owl attraction. At 6,076 yards, it is rather short by today's championship standards, but the rolling up-and-down fairways make it very much a target course. The highly contoured greens also are challenging, and champions like Collings and Scissons have learned to keep the ball below the hole in order to score under par.

The 30-plus volunteer directors who organize the Grey Owl agree on another positive feature -- its good fellowship and camaraderie. The tournament is not a "closed shop", there are 40-50 newcomers each year, but it also is a reunion for many regulars who enjoy the social aspects of the weekend. An average of about 30 golfers hail from points outside Manitoba, and as far away as Vancouver, Toronto, and Dallas, Texas.

When you combine all the elements, including the fact that the Grey Owl players now dine on rib eye steak at the Friday night banquet as opposed to those original cheese sandwiches, you have a Manitoba golf event that has stood the test of time.

Match Play, Amateur and
Mid-Amateur Champ

Once Brad Kirton had decided he wanted to turn to professional ranks, he was determined to make his final season as an amateur golfer something to remember. And, he did!

The Pine Ridge player started the 2008 season with a victory in the Manitoba Match Play championship, then followed by successfully defending his Manitoba Amateur and Manitoba Mid-Amateur crowns.

Three provincial championships in one year seemed like a suitable ending to an amateur career and it also led to Kirton's selection as the Manitoba Amateur Golfer of the Year for the second straight year.

He made his first attempt to get to the Canadian Tour at the fall qualifying school at Ashburn, ON, in September. He didn't make it, but he also didn't give up his hopes. This spring he travelled to Austin, TX, to get some practice, joining fellow Manitobans Adam Speirs and Ryan Horn.

He was scheduled to try the Canadian Tour's spring qualifying school in San Diego, CA, in March and, if that wasn't successful he would move on to the Canadian spring qualifier in April at Parksville, BC. Hopefully he would earn his Canadian Tour card. If not, he still intended to seek his pro career through some Monday qualifying rounds and/or playing on one of the satellite tours.

Kirton started his 2008 season by tying for eighth in the medal rounds for the Match Play championship, then winning five matches to claim the title. Along the way, he sidelined fellow Pine Ridge golfer Tyler Mancini, who won the medal honours, and wound up with a 3-and-2 victory over Elmhurst's Peter More in the final.

More and Garth Collings of Breezy Bend then dominated the action with Kirton through the Manitoba Amateur and Mid-Amateur championships, all three of them earning places on the two provincial teams.

It took an exciting five extra holes for Kirton to claim the Amateur title after he and Collings both posted eight-under par totals of 280 through four rounds at the Links at the Lake club at Gimli in early July. Kirton had to come from behind, shooting a final round 69 to go with earlier scores of 73-70-68. Collings was the leader through 54 holes with scores of 71-66-72 and closed out with 71 to tie Kirton at 280.

The two provided a good-sized gallery of followers with five exceptional playoff holes before Kirton wrapped it up on the third trip to the 18th hole. The playoff started on 18, then went to 17, 18, 17 and 18 again with the two golfers exchanging great shots to stay in the hunt.

More and Todd Fanning of Niakwa also both scored 69 in the final round to wind up with 72-hole totals of 284 and earn berths on the provincial Willingdon Cup team along with Kirton and Collings. More's earlier rounds were 74-73-68, while Fanning shot 72-67-76.

At the Canadian Amateur championship at Lethbridge, the Manitoba team tied with British Columbia in second place with a total of 428, three shots behind the winning team from Alberta. Michael Willingdon Cup Team: Garth Collings, Harvey Goehring (non-playing captain), Peter More, Brad Kirton, Todd Fanning, Garth Goodbrandson (Coach).

Keast, not a team member, had the lowest score among Manitobans with a total of 286, tied in 23rd place. Fanning and More both has 289, Kirton 291 and Collings 292 as all five made the cut.

It was a repeat battle of Kirton, More and Collings at the Manitoba Mid-Amateur championship at Breezy Bend, this time More charging from behind and losing out by a single stroke to the defending champ.

Kirton shot 74-67-71-70 for a six-under-par total of 282; More had 69-72-74-68 for 283; and Collings shot 71-73-70-73 for 287.

The three leaders played head-to-head down the stretch and More and Kirton were tied as they reached the final hole. More's chance to force a playoff ended when Kirton two-putted for a par and More took three putts for a bogey on the 18th.

Collings won the Mid-Masters section with his 287 total, with Dave Lavallee of Quarry Oaks the runner-up at 293.

Lavallee joined Kirton, More and Collings on the provincial Mid-Amateur team. At the national championship at Qualicum Beach, BC, Kirton had to withdraw due to illness and the Manitoba team placed fifth with a total of 452. BC won with 438. Individually, More finished in fourth place at the national event with 293, Collings was 14th with 298 and Lavallee tied in 23rd place with 301.

Jill Hardy a double winner in women's play

Jill Hardy
Amateur and City & District Champion

Jill Hardy of Elmhurst was a double winner in Manitoba women's competitions in 2008, winning a weather-shortened City & District in June, then romping to a 12-stroke triumph in the Women's Amateur championship in July.

Rain wiped out the scheduled first round of the City & District event on June 21 at St. Boniface, so the tournament became a one-round competition on June 22. Hardy, who was the defending champion, took the honours with an 80, four shots ahead of Jamie Jones and Rhonda Orr of Southwood and Annette Durica of Niakwa, who shared the runner-up position with 84.

At the Women's Amateur championship July 2-4 at Transcona, Hardy was consistent with three rounds of 74 for a 222 total as she claimed the provincial crown for a third time. She was also the Manitoba Amateur Women's champion in 2001 and 2004.

Sarah Stebeleski of the Manitoba Public Players Club shot 78-77-79 for 234 in the runner-up position, Mindy Lichtman of St. Boniface was third with 88-79-75 for 242 and defending champ Kaitlin Troop of Clear Lake was next in line with 83-82-79 for 244.

That foursome made up the Manitoba team for the national Women's Amateur championship which was played at the end of July at Elmhurst Golf and Country Club. The team finished in seventh place with a total of 473, led by Hardy with 78-79 for 157. Troop was 77-84 for 161, Stebeleski was 83-79 for 162 and Lichtman was 93-77 for 170.

Hardy was the only Manitoban to make the cut at the national event and she finished tied in 42nd place with a four-round total of 309.

Bri-Ann Tokariwski tops Junior Women

She watched a five-stroke lead disappear early in the round, but Bri-Ann Tokariwski of Elmhurst stayed the course and wound up with a seven-shot margin as she captured the Manitoba Junior Women's championship in July at The Meadows at East St. Paul.

The 16-year-old Tokariwski scored a final round 80 to go with earlier scores of 82 and 79 for a 241 total over the 54-hole competition, comfortably ahead of runner-up Jessie Choi of Southwood, who closed with 82 after shooting 83s in the first two rounds for a 54-hole total of 248.

Rounding out the provincial junior women's team were Lindsay Stewart of Selkirk and Jenna Roadley of Glendale, both with 250. Stewart carded 87-83-80, while Roadley shot 84-81-85.

Defending champion Chelsea Hummelt of Selkirk placed fifth with rounds of 88-79-88 for 255 and Nauen Park of Larters scored 84-86-89 for 259 in sixth place. They joined the provincial team members on the team for the Manitoba/Minnesota team matches.

Roadley's 250 total was a runaway winning score in the 15-and-under age division, 31 strokes better than Breanne Fredette of Niakwa, who had a total of 281 over the three rounds.

The champion noted that she settled down after a nervous triple-bogey seven on the second hole of the final round. "I was pretty much going through swing thoughts to relax, breathe and take the nerves away," she said after the round.

The Manitoba team finished in seventh place with a total of 506 in the national team competition played in August at St. Charles Country Club. Tokariwski led the Manitoba team with 83-93—166.

It's a "three-peat" for Kevin Giesbrecht in Junior Men

Kevin Giesbrecht
Junior Champ

For the third straight year, Kevin Giesbrecht of Carman Golf Club was crowned as Manitoba Junior Men's golf champion, and he enhanced his reputation as the comeback king to do it.

The 18-year-old Giesbrecht was three strokes off the lead heading into the final round at The Meadows at East St. Paul, but stormed from behind to win by a single shot over runner-up Aaron Cockerill of the Teulon Golf and Country Club, who emerged as the winner in the 15-16 age group.

A year earlier, Giesbrecht erased a four-stroke margin in the final round at Southwood to win by three strokes over runner-up Joey McInnes of Red Lake to claim his second provincial junior crown.

He became the first to win the junior men's title in three straight years since Rob McMillan of Pine Ridge put together a string of four straight 1991-94. David Hill of Southwood won three in a row in 1965-67.

Giesbrecht put the finishing touch on his 2008 comeback win when he drained a 45-foot eagle putt on the par-five 18th hole at the Meadows to squeeze out the one-stroke victory. The champion had rounds of 73-72-70-73 for a total of 288, even par for the 72-hole competition. Cockerill scored 67-71-74-77 for his one-over-par 289.

Tied in third place and rounding out the provincial junior team were Ryan Pitzel of Rossmere and Burke Wiebe of Southwood, both with 290 totals. Pitzel had rounds of 70-72-75-73, while Wiebe shot 70-74-73-73.

In addition to the championship, Giesbrecht won the 17-18 age group ahead of Pitzel and Wiebe. Cockerill was the winner in the 15-16 age group, with Myles Sullivan of Portage as runner-up.

The 13-14 age group winner was Brodie Gobin of Portage and the 12-and-under honours went to Conner Shaw of Thompson.

At the national junior men's championship at Edmonton, the Manitoba team placed eighth in the team competition with a total of 458. Pitzel had the best individual showing for the Manitobans finishing in a tie for 49th place with 301. Cockerill was next at 302.

Golf Club in July, putting together rounds of 85-78-80 for a 243 total over the 54-hole route.

Her closest competitor was Karen Saarimaki of the Kenogamis club at Geraldton, ON, who shot 87-81-83 for a total of 251. Rounding out the provincial senior women's team were Yon Kang of Rossmere, with 86-89-85—260, and Judy Lang of Niakwa, with 91-85-85—261. Defending champion Judi Lidstone of Elmhurst finished in fifth place with 93-86-83—262.

Though she learned to golf as a child, Stewart was strictly in it for recreation. "I started to compete a few years ago and it's been a great experience," she said. "Hopefully, this will happen again. We'll see"

At the national competition at St. John, NL, in August, the Manitoba team finished fifth with a total of 507. Stewart led the Manitoba team with 164, followed by Saarimaki with 167.

In the individual competition, Stewart finished in 12th place with a total of 246, Saarimaki was 20th with 250. Former Manitoba golfer Lynda Palahniuk, playing out of BC, was runner-up for the national women's championship.

Don Jackson repeats as Senior Men's champ

Don Jackson
Senior Champ

Make it back-to-back titles for Don Jackson of Portage, who successfully defended his Manitoba Senior Men's championship in August at Carman Golf Club.

Jackson led from the opening round, putting together rounds of 71-73-74 for a 218 total. That was five strokes better than a trio of chasers as Bill North of Carman, Grant Foster of Niakwa and Denis Burns of Transcona all finished with 223 to share the runner-up honours.

North had rounds of 76-76-71, Foster shot 75-76-72 and Burns turned in cards of 74-72-77 for their 223 totals. Because Foster wasn't available to travel to the national championship, Imri Nyiri of Elmhurst took over his place on the provincial team along with Jackson, North and Burns. Nyiri shot 72-74-78 for 224.

At the national senior men's championship in September at Sault Ste. Marie, ON, the Manitoba team placed seventh with a total of 469. Jackson led the Manitobans with 154 and North shot 155 in the team event. In individual competition, Jackson tied in 23rd place with 304 and North was 27th with 307.

Irv Benne of Killarney Lakeside captured the Super Senior title with a 54-hole total of 235, ahead of Glen Sinclair of Carman, who had 244. Nyiri won the first flight, the second flight was won by Menno Zacharias of Southwood and the third flight went to Barry Hooke of Portage

An aerial view of a portion of the new Oak Island course at Four Seasons Resort.

What's New on

Manitoba

Golf

Scene

By RALPH BAGLEY

New golf courses continue to spring up around Manitoba and it appears the trend will be staying with us for at least a few more years. This seems apparent after our annual check-up of What's New on the Manitoba Golf Scene.

This year's report is highlighted by the opening of one new 18-hole layout last season, a couple of new courses to be opened to the public this year, a re-opening of another course, the re-opening of an indoor practice facility, changes and updates at several layouts and construction under way on new courses expected to be ready for play in 2010 or 2011.

The new course to greet Manitoba golfers in 2008 was Oak Island Golf at the Four Seasons Island Resort near Oak Lake in the western region. It went into operation at the start of the 2008 season and was attracting many golfers from the Brandon area during its opening period.

Whats New -

Coming on stream this season are the new Poplar Ridge course at Onanole (near Clear Lake) and the new Links at Crow Wing at Niverville. A re-opening is also scheduled this summer at Maplewood Club de Golf, the former Rat River Golf layout, at St. Pierre-Jolys, which has been dormant for two seasons.

To add to this activity, you can look to St. Norbert, where the Southwood Golf and Country Club's new course is taking shape in preparation for a planned opening in 2011, or look north to Swan River, where a second nine is being added to that nine-hole layout, or into the Interlake area to The Narrows, where another major course is in the planning stages.

The 2008 season also featured the re-opening of the completely-renovated Golf Central practice facility on Plessis Road and it proved busy during its first summer and winter in the revamped quarters.

OAK ISLAND GOLF

Located south of the Trans-Canada Highway about 35 minutes west of Brandon, this new course welcomed its first customers on the May long weekend of 2008 and saw the interest grow throughout the season. The course features a view of the lake from the majority of fairways along with a forest of oak trees to provide an interesting 18-hole test for golfers of all abilities.

With four tees on every hole, the Oak Island course measures a championship-calibre 6626 yards from the black tees and can play as short as 5044 yards from the green tees. It's 6102 from the blues and 5547 from the whites. The front nine is relatively open, while the back nine is carved through one of the oldest stands of oak trees in the province.

Well-placed sand bunkers and several ponds or marshy areas will force golfers to think their way around this new course. Several of the holes also feature dog-leg corners that will call for positioning of shots. Over all, the course had a comfortable feel as we toured it last fall.

Architect Les Ferber made use of many natural clearings in shaping the course and only removed trees that were absolutely necessary, retaining the natural surroundings of the area. Planning for the course began in 2005 when the current owners took possession of the Island and the existing resort. Construction was started in 2006 and the finishing touches were made late in the 2007 season to be ready for the 2008 opening.

In addition to the golf course, The Four Seasons Island Resort facility features cabins and lots and a full-service campground, along with a marina, store and burger shop.

Another feature attraction at the golf course is the 10,000-square-foot Riel's Restaurant and Lounge, which can seat up to 350 persons for special events. Diners can look out over the front nine and enjoy views of the lake during their visit.

More information about the resort and course is available through the website: www.fourseasonsislandresort.com.

POPLAR RIDGE GOLF COURSE

The target date is July for the opening of this picturesque 6600-yard championship course, which has been under construction for two seasons at Onanole, just south of Clear Lake and Riding Mountain National Park.

Poplar Ridge Golf Course and Housing Development is the full name of the operation, which features more than 60 fully-serviced building lots along with the golf layout. The lots range from one-half acre to four-fifths of an acre and all but four of the lots front on to the course. The course weaves through and around the residential lots, with some distance between holes in some locations.

The new course will feature three tees on each hole to satisfy all levels of golfers and three holes are singled out for special mention in the pre-opening announcements. The 11th hole has three elevated tees located high above the green, which is surrounded by trees and fronted by water. There's a "near-island" green on No. 13 which is expected to give golfers a feeling of what the PGA pros face on the famed 17th hole at the Tournament Players Championship. A tee shot across water on No. 8 is expected to create a risk/reward situation for the players.

Developers of the Poplar Ridge course took advantage of the landscape and natural contours of rolling hills, trees, meadows and water to dictate the layout of the holes and the residential lots.

Noted and familiar names are featured on the various streets through the residential development – such as Poplar Ridge Drive, Augusta Way, St. Andrews Bay, La Costa Cove and Glen Abby Lane.

Further information on the course and the residential development is available through the website at: www.golfpoplarridge.com.

THE LINKS AT CROW WING

Weather has been a big factor in the progress of the Crow Wing Development at Niverville and the goal is to have the driving range in operation early this spring and a hope to allow some play on the first nine holes before the end of this season. A full course opening is planned in 2010.

The links-style Crow Wing layout, designed by Graham Cooke, has been under construction since 2005 and features grassy mounds and internal lakes as it surrounds a residential development. Water will come into play on 12 of the 18 holes on the course, which will measure a challenging 7400 yards from the back tees and about 5000 yards from the front tees.

Kerry Church, president of Crow Wing Development, reported the irrigation and drainage work was completed on the first nine last year and work will continue to complete the course this year to be ready for seeding for an anticipated opening of the full layout for next season.

In the residential development, 65 of the 76 lots available in the

MAPLEWOOD CLUB DE GOLF

The revision of the course formerly known as Rat River Golf at St. Pierre-Jolys was to go into operation in 2007, but the partnership arrangement for the operation fell through and the course remained closed through the past two seasons.

Michael Guertin has taken over the operation and is preparing to open the Maplewood layout this year. The plan is to start play on nine holes early in the season, with the other nine to go on stream in the later part of the summer.

Barry Gibson of the St. Vital Golf Centre will be in charge as the club professional and general manager and Michael Greenwood, formerly at the Delahunt Golf Club at Treherne, has been hired as the course superintendent.

The Maplewood layout will feature many revisions of the old Rat River course and the first nine holes in play will be a mixture of holes from the two nines.

SOUTHWOOD GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Construction is on schedule at the new Southwood Golf and Country Club course at St. Norbert and the club is looking forward to the move from its present Fort Garry location to the new site in 2011.

General manager Mike Kenney reported many of the club members had taken advantage of inspection trips to the new site during the 2008 season and interest is growing now that the actual work is under way. Rough shaping of 18-hole layout has been completed and work on the drainage and irrigation systems is continuing this year.

It is planned to have most of the seeding and the construction of cart paths completed this year and through the 2010 season.

Construction of the clubhouse will begin in the spring of 2011 to prepare for the move.

The Southwood course at St. Norbert will be a par-72 layout which will measure 7336 yards from the black tees, 6397 yards from the whites and 5318 yards from the reds.

SWAN RIVER GOLF & COUNTRY CLUB

Work is under way on the construction of a new nine holes to add to the popular nine-hole layout at Swan River. Course architect Dave Grant of Grant Golf reported earth-moving work was started last fall and will continue this summer.

The new nine has been in the planning stages since 2005, but the attention has been focussed on the funding of the project. As the earth-moving continues, it is planned to begin building the greens and tees and get into seeding operations this summer.

THE NARROWS

Another project for Grant Golf is the construction of a new 18-hole golf course which is not yet named at The Narrows along Highway 6 at Lake Manitoba. Chad Olafson, owner of the Narrows Lodge, is working on a residential development along with the course.

Grant said clearing operations have been started and construction of greens and tees is planned for this summer. There is a possibility the course may be ready for some play in 2010.

MORE GRANT PROJECTS

Grant Golf has also been involved since 2005 on renovations at Rossmere Country Club and a major project for 2008 was the building of a new green on the 16th hole, which was completed last fall and ready for play as the 2009 season opens.

Work is continuing this season on a new green for the 13th hole and a new tee on the ninth hole, with the green on the fourth hole to be rebuilt.

At Pine Ridge Golf Club, Grant is working on the rebuilding of bunkers to return to the original Donald Ross style. All four bunkers on the seventh hole have been completed and other rebuilding of bunkers is continuing.

At Breezy Bend Country Club, attention is centred on updating the club's master plan with some alterations completed on the 12th, 13th and 14th holes on the back nine and similar changes planned on the second, third and fourth holes on the front nine.

Renovations at Transcona Golf Club and Glendale Country Club have also been completed or are on-going for the Grant operation.

GOLF CENTRAL

The renovated Golf Central operation on Plessis Road in Transcona was opened early in the 2008 season and patrons were pleased with the improvements, which feature automatic tee-up systems for the 20 hitting bays, each with individual roll-down doors and air doors to provide cool comfort in hot summer weather and warmth in the cold weather of winter.

The facility also includes V-Golf simulators and laser shooting simulators inside and during the summer months golfers can use the outdoor facilities of grass tees and as well as a putting green and short-game practice area.

Manager Andy An has also added a sushi bar to the operation and the entire operation is licensed for liquor sales. Golf Central is open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. year-round.

Mike Trager named Superintendent of the Year

Mike Trager, head man at the Virden Wellview Golf Club, has been chosen by the Manitoba Golf Superintendents Association as the 2008 Superintendent of the Year.

"Being recognized by one's peers is the best part of winning an award like this," said the 33-year-old Trager, who has been the head superintendent at the Virden club for six years. "We have a nice layout at Virden and there have been several improvements made in recent years."

Trager got his start in the golf course industry back in 1994 at the age of 17 when he worked as a member of the grounds crew at Rossmere Country Club. After four years, he left the business and spent three years working as an electrician, but the desire for the outside work on the golf course brought him back.

He attended the Greenspace course at Red River College from 1998 to 2000, then returned to Rossmere as a member of the crew. In 2002, he moved to Virden to become assistant superintendent under George Trowell and moved up to head superintendent the following year.

Trager has also been an active member of the board of directors of the MGSA for several years and is the current vice-president of the provincial association,

Trager and his wife Joanne have a two-year-old daughter Maya.

The role of the Golf Course Superintendent

By the MGSA Board of Directors

Ask a golfer which person first comes to mind when you think of a golf course?

The odds are the Golf Professional will dominate the answer. And naturally so, with PGA golf events on TV almost every week and the golf club professionals and their teams basically on frontlines and having the most exposure to the golfer daily at the majority of golf courses.

If you're a viewer of the golf channel you may have noticed another professional -- the Golf Course Superintendent -- highlighted through commercials created by the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America.

This article is to focus on the profession of the Golf Course Superintendent and, hopefully, increase your awareness of the state of this rewarding profession in Manitoba.

Human Resource Management -- Golf Course Superintendents are responsible for all the various components of human resource management and for providing a safe work environment. If you ask any golf course superintendent, he or she would say that the golf course can only be as good as the people who work for them. Superintendents must lead by example in any given situation, whether leading a team of three people or 50 people in carrying out the simplest of golf course maintenance programs or the more complex maintenance programs.

Communication Skills -- Golf Course Superintendents should possess sound verbal, written and oral communication skills to deliver timely information when needed. Each golf course will differ but one task is constant and that is communication -- with fellow golf course superintendents, members, golfers, club boards and committees, maintenance team members and club management. Communication is a key to success at any golf club.

Business and Project Management -- Golf Course Superintendents are responsible for the fiscal management of the course maintenance operations. A lot of product and equipment perusals and comparisons are made before final purchasing decisions are made. Maintenance budgets can vary from under $100,000 to over $1,000,000 and, no matter what the total is, each dollar can be accounted for with regards to the importance in conditioning the golf course.

There are great pressures to produce more with less to meet golfer expectations and golf course superintendents put their best foot forward with this challenge. No matter what type of golf facility it is, there always seems to be golf course projects of varying degrees and in most cases the golf course superintendent is very hands on and can be called the project manager. It's not just about turf and cutting grass, golf course superintendents will possess varying skills in business management.

A Typical Work Week -- Imagine starting your working day at 5 a.m.? Well, that would be the starting time for most golf course superintendents. Most golf course superintendents from Monday thru Friday have worked 10 hours by 3 p.m. and that's if things are running smoothly and doesn't include time continuously thinking about the state of the golf course while away from the course.

On Saturdays and Sundays, superintendents and their teams get a reprieve and may only work five hours each day. Superintendents may work seven days a week and days away from the golf course are kept to a minimum. Superintendents are trying to find more ways to spend time with family and by taking the odd weekend off a month in an attempt to find a balance between their professional and personnel life.

Weather and Course Management -- First off, Golf Course Superintendents have no control over what the weather patterns are and really have to rely on the weather to co-operate with carrying out course conditioning programs. Golf course management is directly affected by weather. Manitoba has some of the most severe weather patterns during certain seasons, specifically winter and summer.

Keeping turfgrasses alive during these seasons is challenging enough, never mind keeping turf lush green. Golf course maintenance programs are changed daily, depending on what the weather patterns are and superintendents have to be there to react as needed.

There are no guarantees in the golf course maintenance and what might work well for one golf club may not work well for another. The age of a golf club plays a major roll with what a superintendent can do and, in some cases, may be limited in doing. A newer golf course has new varieties of turfgrasses, newer irrigation systems, newer bunkers, etc. and should be superior to older golf courses that have older inferior components. Golf course superintendents make the most out what they have to work with regards to age of golf course, maintenance budgets, resources and manpower.

Greens crew at work.

Environmental Management Responsibility -- The 2009 season will be the first year with the provincial Nutrient Management Regulation in place, where golf clubs and driving ranges have to submit an application for approval for applying turf nutrient products to any turf areas. Golf Course Superintendents are responsible for adhering to all the policies and procedures set out in the nutrient management plan.

One take-home item for you the golfer, is that there may be designated buffer zone areas along water features on golf courses that no turf nutrients containing Nitrogen and Phosphorous can be applied. This may lead to unhealthy turf in these areas and ultimately less desirable playing conditions. Golf Course Superintendents are responsible for maintaining the property in a sound manner and keeping accurate records and should strive to improve the golf courses environmental performance on an annual basis. Superintendents have to prepare for future regulations/restrictions that will limit the maintenance and input options for maintaining quality turf and playing surfaces.

Keeping Up with Industry Compliances/Standards -- Golf Course Superintendents are responsible for keeping up with industry compliances and standards very similar to the golf professional side of the business. Superintendents may have short courses, diplomas or degrees in golf course management. Superintendents must have the knowledge of provincial and national legislation and compliance requirements.

Particular to Manitoba, golf course superintendents need to be certified in Integrated Pest Management (IPM) in order to hold a valid pesticide applicators license. Without these two credentials a golf course shall not apply products unless contracted out to a licensed professional. Superintendents are responsible for submitting post season reports on products used and for completing the application forms for product application permits pertaining to the use of these various golf course products.

Manitoba Golf Superintendents Association (MGSA) is an association committed to providing the opportunity and means to keep superintendents and those that aspire to become a golf course superintendent current with industry and provincial compliances. On a national level, the Canadian Golf Superintendents Association (CGSA) is committed to the development of the superintendents profession and increasing awareness as well. Annual conferences held by both associations provide the opportunity for continuing education sessions and seminars for golf course superintendents to keep current on industry trends, compliances that are continually changing from year to year.

To Conclude -- The golf course is the heart of any golf course operation and plays a pivotal roll in the success of all other departments. When the golf season is underway and the weather is very co-operative for the game of golf and with course conditions being very acceptable, the food and beverage operation, the sales in the pro shop all seem to meet or even exceed budget expectations. The purpose of this article is not to put one professional role above another but to increase the golfer awareness and insight into the business of being a golf course superintendent.

Golf course operations are made up of specialized professionals who are responsible for the sound management of one or more departments that make up the organization. One sound choice a golfer can make is by playing golf courses managed by Golf Course Superintendents who are members in good standing of provincial and national superintendents associations.

From the Manitoba Golf Superintendents Association we congratulate all 2008 provincial champions and hope the weather co-operates for good golf and golf course maintenance for the 2009 season.

Greenspace Management program overhauled

By ROB OFFICER

The Greenspace Management program at Red River College entered its 11th year of instruction in the fall of 2008 and, not unlike any other business operation, education and training programs need to keep current with changing research, technology, and industry and student demands.

The Greenspace Management program undertook an intense program renewal process over the course of the past two years.

Under the direction of curriculum experts and with the input of faculty, an environmental scan was completed to create an inventory of existing curriculum, infrastructure and special features of other similar program across Canada. Furthermore, curriculum experts guided industry, former students and faculty through a curriculum development process to assist in identifying strengths and weaknesses of the existing curriculum and program structure.

Consequently, the Greenspace Management program will have a new look in the fall of 2009.

The most significant change is the option for students to choose, in their second year of studies, a Landscape Construction and Maintenance option or Turfgrass Management option, a choice that until now did not exist. This will allow students to become more specialized in their field of choice while at the same time maintaining a foundation of core courses required for either option.

As result, a number of new courses have also been introduced including; Greenspace Graphics, Advanced Irrigation and Drainage, Sports Turf, Advanced Landscape Construction and Maintenance and Professionalism.

It is anticipated these changes will result in an improved educational experience for students and improved student recruitment and retention rates, while maintaining the core aspects and principles of the Greenspace Management program of the past eleven years.

One new member added to board

One new board member was elected as the annual general meeting of the Manitoba Golf Superintendents Association was held in November. Alan Haufek of Brett Young joined the board of directors as a commercial representative, replacing Todd Fanning of National Leasing.

Darren Kalyniuk of St. Boniface Golf Club is serving his second year as president of the organization with Michael Trager of Virden Wellview Golf Club as vice-president. Dave Tkachuk is past president. Other returning members of the board are Ian Brooks of Selkirk Golf and Country Club, Kerry Watkins of St. Charles Country Club, Ralph Schofield of Lakeland Golf Management and Jason Steadwell of Even Spray and Chemicals. Bob Hamm of Steinbach is the executive director.

Watkins was also elected as Manitoba representative on the board of the Canadian Golf Superintendents Association, taking over from Greg Holden of Clear Lake Golf Club, who has moved up to the vice-president position in the national organization.

Kalyniuk and Watkins serve on the standard operating procedures committee and are joined by Steadwell on the newsletter committee. Kalyniuk is in charge of public relations and Watkins heads the environment committee. Steadwell is in charge of scholarships. Trager serves on by-laws, social, long-range planning and Manitoba Golf Hall of Fame representative. Brooks serves with Trager on competitions and with Fanning and Ian Martinusen on the annual turf research tournament. Schofield is in charge of education and course selection. The conference committee includes Watkins, Schofield, Trager and Haufek. The sick and visiting committee is under Haufek and Hamm is in charge of the association's web site.

The MGSA's annual Turfgrass Research golf tournament will be played at the Selkirk Golf and Country Club this year. The date has been set for Friday, Aug. 14.

Professional Player of the Year honours go to Derek Ingram

Derek Ingram

Derek Ingram has had a reputation as a leader in teaching and coaching golf in Manitoba for several seasons, but it was his golf game that put him in the spotlight in the 2008 season.

The Elmhurst Golf and Country Club teaching pro let his clubs do the talking as he captured the Titleist/Footjoy Manitoba PGA championship and the coveted Callaway Pro Player of the Year honours.

The Pro Player of the Year is based on points from all MPGA events. Players use their best points from three single-round events, plus the three-round MPGA championship and the two-round Callaway Fall Classic.

Ingram racked up 334 points to take the title, just three points ahead of Dean North of Selkirk Golf and Country Club. Scott Parker of Hecla Island Golf Course finished in third place with 328 and Brian Guenther of the Steinbach Fly-In Golf Club was fourth with 308.

Ingram needed a one-hole playoff to claim the provincial PGA title as he and North both posted 54-hole scores of 214 at Selkirk in July. Ingram had rounds of 70-73-71, while North shot 71-76-67. Guenther and Geoff Kehler of St. Boniface Golf Club tied in third place with 219.

There was also a playoff needed at the Callaway Fall Classic in August at St. Boniface as Ingram and Parker finished with 36-hole totals of 144. Parker won that playoff with rounds of 69 and 75. Ingram carded 70-74. Jared Ladobruk of St. Charles Country Club was third with 145.

Ingram got off to good start by winning the first tournament of the season in May, the Golf Supply House Spring Kick-Off when he carded a 69 at Niakwa Country Club to finish three strokes ahead of North, who matched par with 72. Parker was winner of the TaylorMade Cup event in June at the Meadows at East Paul with 68, while North was winner of the Callaway Cup tournament at Minnewasta in July with 71.

In conjunction with the MPGA Championship at Selkirk in July, the provincial Senior PGA honours went to Dave Rhodes of Tuxedo Golf Club with a 36-hole score of 147, three ahead of Ben Smirnov of John Blumberg Golf Course.

Dave Rhodes

The provincial Assistants championship was also played at Selkirk with Brad Poleschuk of Bel Acres Golf and Country club claiming the title with a 36-hole score of 145, five strokes better than Dave Scinocca of Northern Pines Golf Club.

10 Titleist Cup wins for Manitoba

For the fourth year in a row, Team Manitoba has won the Titleist Cup, an annual competition between professional teams from Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

The 2008 edition was played at The Willows in Saskatoon and the Manitobans claimed the honours by a margin of 15.5 to 8.5. It was the 10th victory for Manitoba against four wins for Saskatchewan in the event which was started in 1995.

Team Manitoba was represented by Geoff Kehler (St. Boniface), Dean North (Selkirk), Glen Mills (Selkirk), Greg Love (Pinawa), Brian Guenther (Steinbach), Shane Dick (Pine Ridge), Steve Wood (Bel Acres), Scott Parker (Hecla), Michel Pilon (Harbour View), Dave Rhodes (Tuxedo), Brad Poleschuk (Bel Acres) and Joel Rhodes (St. Charles).

Brian Guenther Club Pro of the Year

Brian Guenther never strayed far from home in his golfing career and the Steinbach Fly-In Golf Club head professional has been recognized by his peers as the 2008 Manitoba Club Pro of the Year.

The award was made to Guenther at the annual meeting and awards ceremony of the Manitoba Division of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association in October.

Guenther was born and raised at Steinbach and that's where his golf career started, working for one year in the pro shop before becoming a Class B assistant pro under Larry Robinson in 1993. Robinson was named the MPGA Pro of the Year in 2000.

Brian Guenther

After five years at the Steinbach course, he earned his Class A status and moved a little further east to take over as head professional at Falcon Lake Golf Course in 1998. He spent seven years at the resort course, then made his return to the home town to become head pro at the Fly-in Club in 2005.

Guenther learned to golf as a junior member at the Steinbach course but was never involved with competitive play as he turned his attention to the pro shop activities.

He and wife Jackie have one son Rhys, who was born in 2008.

Other award winners at the MPGA ceremony were:

Derek Ingram of Elmhurst Golf and Country Club, a repeat winner of the Teacher of the Year honours and also the Junior Leader of the Year.

Shayne Alan of Southwood Golf and Country Club, Assistant Pro of the Year.

Cory Kartusch of St. Charles Country Club, Merchandiser of the Year.

PROS ON THE MOVE

Manitoba golfers will notice a few new faces around some of the pro shops as the 2009 golf season gets under way and some familiar faces will no longer be seen, according to the latest list available of the moves in the provincial professional golf ranks.

Richard Bull, veteran Brandon professional, has retired.

Emerson Mahoney left his head pro position at Niakwa Country Club to return to Hamilton, ON, and his place has been taken by Wade Nybakken, a former Niakwa assistant who has returned from British Columbia to take over his new post.

Randy Brekke, formerly at Elmhurst Golf and Country Club, has been appointed head pro at the Killarney Lakeside Golf Club at Killarney.

Rana MacLeod left her head pro position at Teulon Golf and Country Club and has assumed head pro duties at the Links at the Lake course at Gimli, where Al Scott remains as Director of Golf.

Shawn Coe has taken over the head pro position at Teulon, leaving his position as an assistant at The Meadows at East St. Paul.

At Harbour View Golf Centre, Stephen Read has been promoted to the position of Director of Golf and Michel Pilon takes on the duties as head pro.

Robert Hollins has left his position as assistant pro at Falcon Lake Golf Course to become assistant pro at Kenora Golf and Country Club.

Paul Farkas is a new assistant professional at Elmhurst Golf and Country Club.

Brad Reimer has become the teaching professional at Golf Town.

Several professionals left their positions in the off season, some moving to other parts of the country and some leaving the business. Jason Sweeney left his head pro position at The Meadows at East St. Paul and moved to Prince Edward Island. Scott Westman left the head pro post at Killarney and moved to Alberta, as did Henry Hemmes from Gilbert Plains. Shawn Woods is no longer the head pro at Neepawa Golf and Country Club, destination unknown at this report. Dennis Heimpel is no longer the head pro at the Southport course at Portage.

Other pros reported to have left the business were Kevin Blahey from Bridges Golf Club and Adam Guenther from the Derek Ingram Golf School.

New members of the Manitoba Division of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association this year are Pat Beaudoin at Transcona Golf Club, Maurice Rajotte at Breezy Bend Country Club, Andrew Steep at Glendale Country Club, Matt Lorenz at The Meadows at East St. Paul, Cam Waldbauer at Teulon Golf and Country Club, Tony Kapko at St. Boniface Golf Club, Dave Lavallee at the Links at Quarry Oaks and Tandri Sigurdson at Dauphin Lake Golf Club.

30 YEARS OF JOURNALS

By RALPH BAGLEY

It all got started back in 1980 and this issue marks the 30th publication of an annual magazine under the sponsorship of the governing body of the sport of golf in Manitoba.

It was the Manitoba Golf Association in charge of things at that time and the idea of printing a provincial golf journal was born at a meeting of that group's board of directors. It started as a way to raise funds to keep the Manitoba Open Golf Championship alive. After the successful launch, the decision was to make it an annual publication.

That first issue in 1980 was named Manitoba Golf Annual, and that name was carried through the first nine issues as MGA board members and others served on a Yearbook Committee which took on the duties of selling the advertising and putting the editorial information together.

Al Macatavish of Elmhurst, who later went on to serve as president of the Manitoba Golf Association and the Royal Canadian Golf Association, was general chairman for the first two years.

Rudy Boivin of Southwood was the advertising director and I assumed the role of editorial director.

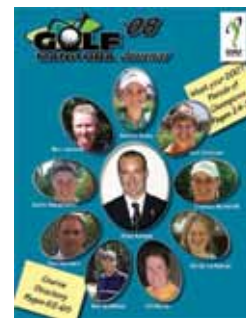

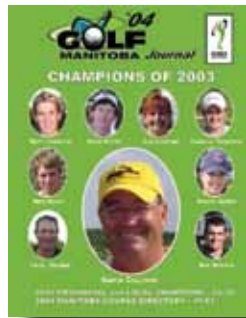

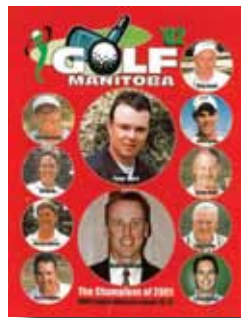

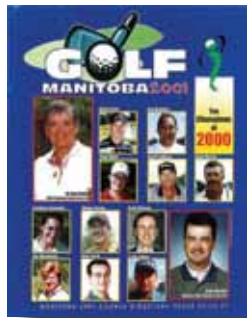

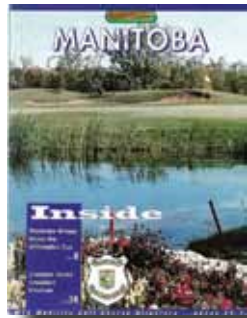

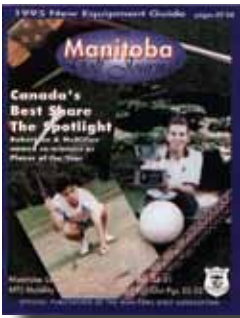

The original committee included photographer Hugh Allan, golf writers Dallis Beck and Ed Dearden, Southwood golf professional Barrie McWha, St. Charles course superintendent John Steel and board members Keith Armstrong, Jim Bristow, Murray Brown, Don Craig, Bill Dunford, Bud Foster, Peter Kremer, D.I. MacDonald, Don Nutley, Gord Pattison, Rick Thain and Orest Yakimischak.

As that first issue was put together, the folks at Wallingford Press produced the final product.

Boivin took over as the general chairman in 1982 and, while there were some changes in the committee personnel over the years, it remained an MGA committee that brought it all together through the 1988 issue. After nine years, the decision was made to place the annual magazine in the hands of a publishing firm.

Thus, Craig Kelman and Associates Ltd. became the publishers and the name of the magazine became Manitoba Golf Journal. That relationship lasted six years, 1989 to 1994, the only six issues in which I had no involvement.

In 1995, the publishing contract was turned over to Canadian Publishers, who engaged me as the editorial director and carried on the name Manitoba Golf Journal through the next six years.

The next change came with the 2001 edition, when I took on the publishing and editing duties. Bagcom Publications became the publisher, with the actual production of the product handled by Xtreme Imaging for four editions and by Esdale Printing Company Ltd. since 2005.

The publication was titled Golf Manitoba for two years. After the amalgamation of the Manitoba Golf Association and the Manitoba Ladies Golf Association under the name Golf Manitoba in 2003, the title Golf Manitoba Journal was introduced and it remains today.

The goal throughout the history of the annual magazine has been to provide a product of value to the golfers of Manitoba and North-western Ontario. It has always included a directory of the association's member clubs, tournament results of the previous season, a salute to the season's champions, a listing of past champions, the current season's tournament schedule, news from the governing bodies of the sport, salute to the Amateur Golfer of the Year and (since its inception in 2003) the inductees into the Manitoba Golf Hall of Fame, along with articles about what is new on the local scene and other items of general golf interest.

Since 2001, we have also had the support of the Manitoba Division of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association and the Manitoba Golf Superintendents Association and provided special sections with news from those two organizations.

There's also an interesting history behind the covers of the annual publication. For the first nine years the feature was a selection of scenes from the golf courses from the wide collection of photographer Hugh Allan. Then the cover featured one outstanding person or some group activity for several years.

A new tradition was started with the 2001 edition, when photographs of all of the provincial champions and the Golfer of the Year from the previous season were featured. That tradition continues to this date and the competitive golfers have learned that winning a provincial title also earns a place on the next year's cover.

In this 30th annual edition, there is also some special attention to make it a keepsake with some historical information. We have included lists of all the players from the provincial men's and women's teams in national events over the years and also a listing of the presidents who had provided the leadership over the years.

The presidents listings include Golf Manitoba (formed in a merger in 2003), the Manitoba Golf Association, the Manitoba Ladies Golf Association and also the Manitoba Division of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association and the Manitoba Golf Superintendents Association.

The provincial teams are those that represented Manitoba in both men's and women's national competitions and is provided at this time as a salute to the past.

GOLF
MANITOBA

As the governing body for amateur golf in Manitoba and Northwest Ontario, Golf Manitoba has established a unique opportunity for corporate partnerships.

Following a comprehensive study conducted by the Royal Canadian Golf Association (RCGA) in 2006, approximately 5.95 million Canadians are playing golf. On a provincial level, the study showed that there are 282,000 active golfers in the Province of Manitoba, which represents the second highest per capita rate of participation in Canada (28.6%). Of that total, there are 196,000 active male golfers and 86,000 active female golfers.

Golf Manitoba recognizes that while the interest in the game of golf continues to grow at an amazing rate, the requirement to provide first class programs for golfers of all ages remains our top priority. As a lifetime sport, Golf Manitoba remains focused on enhancing already successful programming such as provincial championships in numerous categories, player development programs and introductory programming and instruction targeted at youth in Manitoba and Northwest Ontario.

Some of the properties that are available are:

- Men's and Women's (adult and junior) competitive events
- Player Development Initiatives such as golf in schools, future links, etc.
- Contributions to the Manitoba Golf Scholarship Fund

Golf Manitoba would like to thank the following organizations for their assistance in 2009

The 19th Hole

THE LAST WORD — As usual, the final space in this annual production is my place to get in my final thoughts. Because it is the 30th edition, we have tried to look back a little and it is our hope that readers have enjoyed having their memories stirred a little. It truly has been a great ride over the 30 years and I have been proud to have played a role.

Gathering historic information is never easy and there are sometimes a few gaps which cannot be tracked down. That's where you come in. If you have definite information on any of missing information, or if you know of any errors or omissions or any corrections that should be made, please contact the Golf Manitoba office so necessary additions or alterations can be made.

We expect many golfers will retain this edition, or at least the historic portions, for reference when Manitoba golf topics are under discussion and it may even come into play in settling some debates.

Of course, and again as usual, we leave you with the request that you support the advertisers. This publication would not be possible without them. It would help if you mentioned seeing their ad. That's it for another year.

ENJOY YOUR 2009 GOLF SEASON!
